Thank you for supporting the Bazaar!

St. George held its annual Fall Bazaar on Saturday, October 26th. The Bazaar is St. George's major fundraising event during the calendar year. A heartfelt thank-you goes out to all who had their hand in assisting with the Bazaar in some way - with organizing, set-up, cooking, baking, donating, working the event, and cleaning up at the end. The Bazaar featured Ethnic dishes, Take-out meals, Albanian pastries, Take-A-Chance table, and Handcrafted items for sale. We especially wish to recognize and thank the women of the Teuta Society who are the major driver and effort behind this event to make it a success!

St George to follow the Byzantine lectionary

According to Archdiocesan instruction given by Bishop Nikodhim, all of the parishes in the Albanian Archdiocese are directed to follow "Byzantine practice" for the readings of the lectionary for Sunday liturgy. A lectionary is a book that contains the Scripture readings for each day of the year.

Bishop Nikodhim notes that the same readings are used by the Church of Albania.
